CORAM:- A.B. CHAUDHARI, J.
DATED :- 18.07.2007.

Seen letter dated 6.7.2007. Counsel for both parties are absent. Letter shows that earlier one extension was granted by this Court for deciding the suit. That extension expired on 14.7.2007. The parties have been obtaining adjournments after adjournments in the Trial Court and it is stated that the District Government Pleader is also taking adjournments after adjournments and, therefore, the suit could not be disposed of. Hence, there is request for further extension.

The letter does not indicate the period for which time should be extended. It is made clear that the Trial Court will have to decide the suit within a period of eight weeks from today and take such steps as required for preventing adjournments. Time is extended by another eight weeks by way of last chance.
